

Adjunct Faculty

Cabarrus College of Health Sciences in Concord, NC is now accepting applications for General Education Adjunct Faculty to meet the growing student population needs. Instructional areas for the fall include: English/World Literature, Mathematics, College Algebra, Nutrition, Physical Education-Yoga (baccalaureate required), Public Speaking, Psychology, Sociology and World Religions.

Successful applicants must have a master's degree with 18 graduate hours in the teaching discipline. Doctoral preparation, online course presentation or previous college level teaching experience is preferred. For additional information about these positions contact Donna Cline at 704-403-1314 or donna.cline@cabarruscollege.edu.

Cabarrus College is also seeking Adjunct Nursing Faculty to teach in the BSN Completion Program. Successful applicants must hold a doctoral degree in nursing. Previous college level teaching experience is preferred. For additional information about available positions contact Crystal Harris at 704-403-1756 or crystal.harris@cabarruscollege.edu.

Cabarrus College awards baccalaureate and associate's degrees and is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. All programs are fully accredited.

For additional information about Cabarrus College visit www.cabarruscollege.edu.

To apply, email current vitae to: dottie.ross@carolinashealthcare.org
EOE M/F/D/V