KIM LITTLE PRESENTED EDUCATIONAL EXCELLENCE AWARD

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Concord, NC, April 25, 2008- Kimberly Little, Cabarrus College of Health Sciences Assistant Professor of Nursing was presented with the Cabarrus Bank and Trust Educational Excellence Award for the 2007-08 academic year.

This Educational Excellence Award is presented annually to the faculty member at Cabarrus College of Health Sciences who exemplifies excellence in teaching and excels in their role as a faculty member through contributions to the total college learning environment.

The Educational Excellence Award winner receives a $1,000 professional development travel award from Cabarrus Bank and Trust. In addition they receive a commemorative plaque and deliver the charge to the graduates at the annual commencement

Anita Brown, Chancellor of Cabarrus College states that “the educational excellence award is significant in that it exemplifies the Colleges’ commitment to recognizing members of the faculty for outstanding contributions to the learning needs of our students, as well as contributions to the college community.” “We are very pleased that Cabarrus Bank and Trust has demonstrated their commitment to educational excellence in our college and community by sponsoring this award.”

Kim Little, Educational Excellence Award Winner states, “I am honored to receive this year’s award. Being able to assist in the development of future nurses is something I take pride in. I believe students should be encouraged to follow their educational goals as far as they possibly can, for your education is something that can never be taken away from you. It is my hope that my students will become lifelong learners always striving to be the best they can.”
